CurriculumVisions.com

Ours is the only 'anchor' (curriculum backbone) site that is built on a foundation of what you trust most – books. You may already have our printed books, in which case you can now also display a version on your whiteboard to make teaching easier. If not, then you have them all waiting online – effectively 900 class sets at your fingertips.

Ours is by far the most cost-effective solution for giving books to all students in these challenging times. Every textbook has teacher resources linked to it, and Creative Topics (supplementary fiction and non-fiction books) have bookworm quizzes in the front. And to add richness to the books there are also thousands of videos, worksheets, wall displays and so on. All in one place.

Main curriculum topics are accessed through book covers icons to make navigation intuitive for staff and students.

Please be next to your computer and connected to www.curriculumvisions.com if you phone.

Just dig right in...

- Discuss how to make the most of the resources in a staff meeting. Allocate someone to be the website 'champion' – a person who actively trains others.

- Find time to get used to the material. Don't leave the website unused. It takes time to get used to all new things, but the richness of what there is to offer will make your life easier, and will enhance the learning experience of children. Let parents know what you are using, too.
