History

The Romans in Britain

Pages 42-44

Everything here is based on our Curriculum Visions book The Romans in Britain.

In this segment we are going to think about the end of Roman times.

Part 1

Turn to page 42

Why did the Romans leave Britannia?

Answer.....

There was unrest in Rome and the army was needed to stop attacks from the north.

Why were the British not able to defend themselves without the Romans?

Answer.....

They had never been allowed to carry weapons or train for defence.

Who arrived after the Romans left?

Answer.....

The Angles and Saxons.

Part 2

Why has so little remained of Roman buildings?

Answer.....

They were not valued by people who came later, and the stone was used for new buildings including castles and churches.

Answer.....

Portchester can be thought of as like other forts but it is much, much bigger, suggesting it was used for warehousing of goods going back and forth across the channel. Its siting allowed boats to be beached by its walls.

That is the end of this worksheet, and you can now turn to another one. Also, find out if your teacher has left you any other worksheets or special instructions on your school website.

If you interested in this topic continue to browse the book and watch our amazing videos. They start right on the book cover.

Or you may want to see related books. If so just go to the top of the screen, select history, and from the page that opens choose Romans.
