

History

Tudor exploration and modern times

Book: Exploring the Tudor Age of Discovery

Pages 30-31

Students: Fill in the answers and return for assessment

Everything here is based on our Curriculum Visions book Exploring the Tudor Age of Discovery.

In this segment, we are going to find out about the lasting effect of Tudor explorations.

You will need to go to pages 30-31 of the book.

Part 1

List four long-lasting effects of the Tudor explorations.

Answer ...

Students' own answers. Answers could include: new trade routes, slave trading from Africa to the Americas, wealth that allowed new buildings to be built and the arts to flourish, wealth that helped life get better for many, new foods, new crops could be grown cheaply, clothes got cheaper, smoking became popular.

Part 2

Think about the long-lasting effects that you listed above. For each one, say whether you think it was good or bad, and why.

Answer ...

Students' own answers.

That is the end of this worksheet, and you can now turn to another one. Also, find out if your teacher has left you any other worksheets or special instructions on your school website.

If you are interested in this topic, continue to browse the book and watch our amazing videos. They start right on the book cover.

Or you may want to see related books. If so just go to the top of the screen, select history, and from the page that opens choose Exploring the Tudor Age of Discovery.

