

Environment Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Endangered	An animal that provides milk for its babies.
Germ	A group of living things that can breed together.
Habitat	A living thing whose numbers are falling rapidly and which, if nothing is done, may soon become extinct.
Species	The time when the world became a much colder place and ice sheets spread out from mountains and the poles.
Wilderness	To make use of a material more than once.
Mammal	A place in which a living thing can live out its life.
Recycle	An area in which people have not played an important part.
Ice Age	Very small pieces of living matter that can develop and cause disease.

Environment Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Endangered	An animal that provides milk for its babies.
Germ	A group of living things that can breed together.
Habitat	A living thing whose numbers are falling rapidly and which, if nothing is done, may soon become extinct.
Species	The time when the world became a much colder place and ice sheets spread out from mountains and the poles.
Wilderness	To make use of a material more than once.
Mammal	A place in which a living thing can live out its life.
Recycle	An area in which people have not played an important part.
Ice Age	Very small pieces of living matter that can develop and cause disease.