

River Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Dam

A word used to describe a loop in a river which nearly doubles back on itself

Flash flood

A narrow river valley with vertical sides

Oxbow

A flood that happens within a few minutes after heavy rain

Spring

A vertical slope, usually with a rocky face

Reservoir

A very steep-sided river valley, usually found in desert areas

Cliff

A man-made barrier across a river designed to make a lake

Gorge

An artificial lake held behind a dam

Canyon

A place where water seeps out of soil or rock to make a stream

River Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Dam	A word used to describe a loop in a river which nearly doubles back on itself
Flash flood	A narrow river valley with vertical sides
Oxbow	A flood that happens within a few minutes after heavy rain
Spring	A vertical slope, usually with a rocky face
Reservoir	A very steep-sided river valley, usually found in desert areas
Cliff	A man-made barrier across a river designed to make a lake
Gorge	An artificial lake held behind a dam
Canyon	A place where water seeps out of soil or rock to make a stream