

Weather Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Cloud	The rapid movement of air.
Blizzard	A combination of fog and smoke.
Smog	Droplets of moisture have become big enough to fall out of clouds.
Fog	A large number of water droplets and/or ice crystals suspended in the atmosphere.
Weather	Originally the Spanish word for thunderstorm, they are violently spinning funnels of air.
Tornado	The short-term nature of the atmosphere.
Wind	Cloud that forms at ground level.
Rain	A snowstorm accompanied by driving winds such that the snow moves along horizontally.

Weather Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Cloud	The rapid movement of air.
Blizzard	A combination of fog and smoke.
Smog	Droplets of moisture have become big enough to fall out of clouds.
Fog	A large number of water droplets and/or ice crystals suspended in the atmosphere.
Weather	Originally the Spanish word for thunderstorm, they are violently spinning funnels of air.
Tornado	The short-term nature of the atmosphere.
Wind	Cloud that forms at ground level.
Rain	A snowstorm accompanied by driving winds such that the snow moves along horizontally.