

First World War

drafted troops faced chlorine and mustard gas – gas masks were the most effective countermeasure