

Medieval Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Booty	A farmer who lives from a small plot of ground, often divided up into long strips and park of his lord's great fields.
Peasant	A kind of wholesaler, a businessman who bought in goods from farmers or miners and then sold them on.
Tithe	Any treasure gained by taking it from someone else by force.
Yeoman	A defence that foot soldiers used.
Merchant	To destroy a place that has been captured by taking away all its valuables and burning it.
Sacking	Nearly nobility, but not quite.
Pillaging	A kind of tax payable by the peasant to his lord.
Shield wall	To take food and anything else of value from an area.

Medieval Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Booty	A farmer who lives from a small plot of ground, often divided up into long strips and park of his lord's great fields.
Peasant	A kind of wholesaler, a businessman who bought in goods from farmers or miners and then sold them on.
Tithe	Any treasure gained by taking it from someone else by force.
Yeoman	A defence that foot soldiers used.
Merchant	To destroy a place that has been captured by taking away all its valuables and burning it.
Sacking	Nearly nobility, but not quite.
Pillaging	A kind of tax payable by the peasant to his lord.
Shield wall	To take food and anything else of value from an area.

