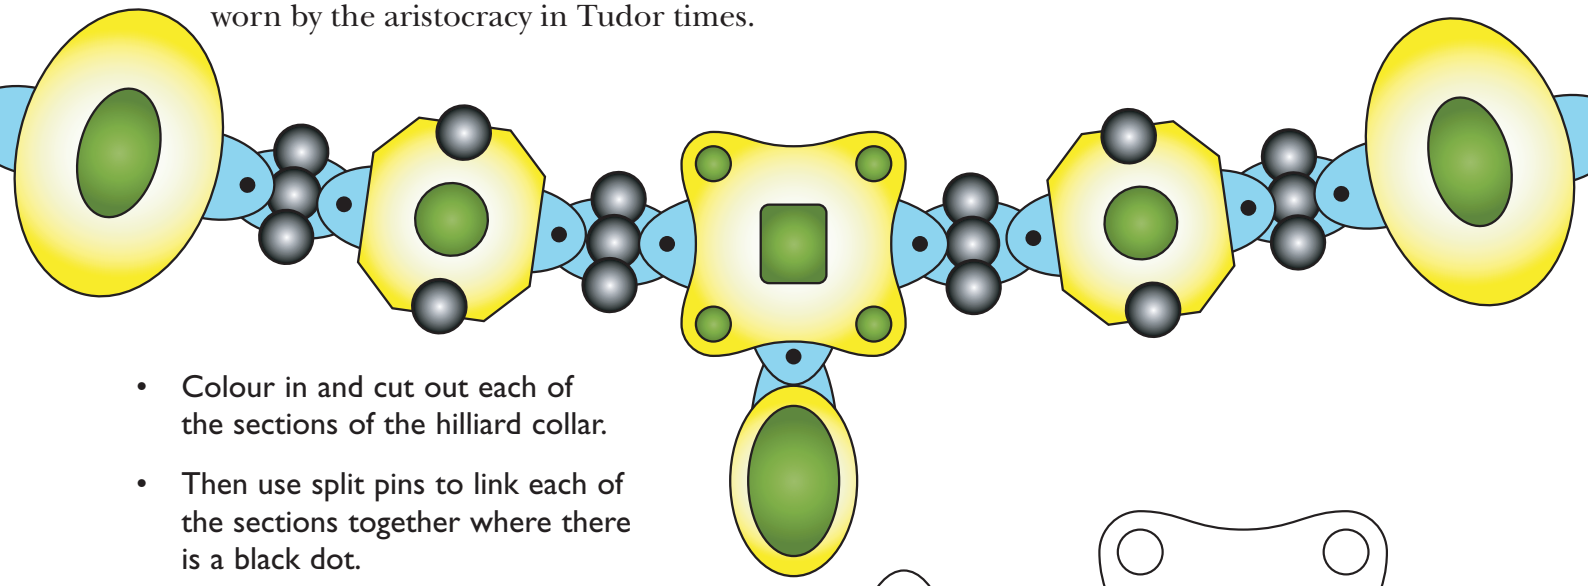
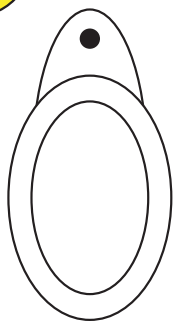
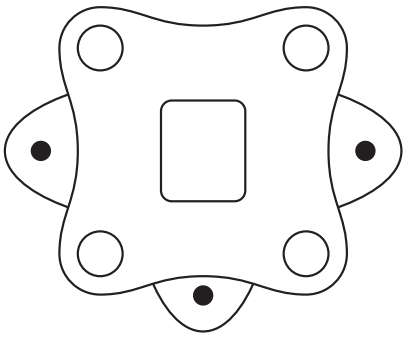
Make a hilliard collar

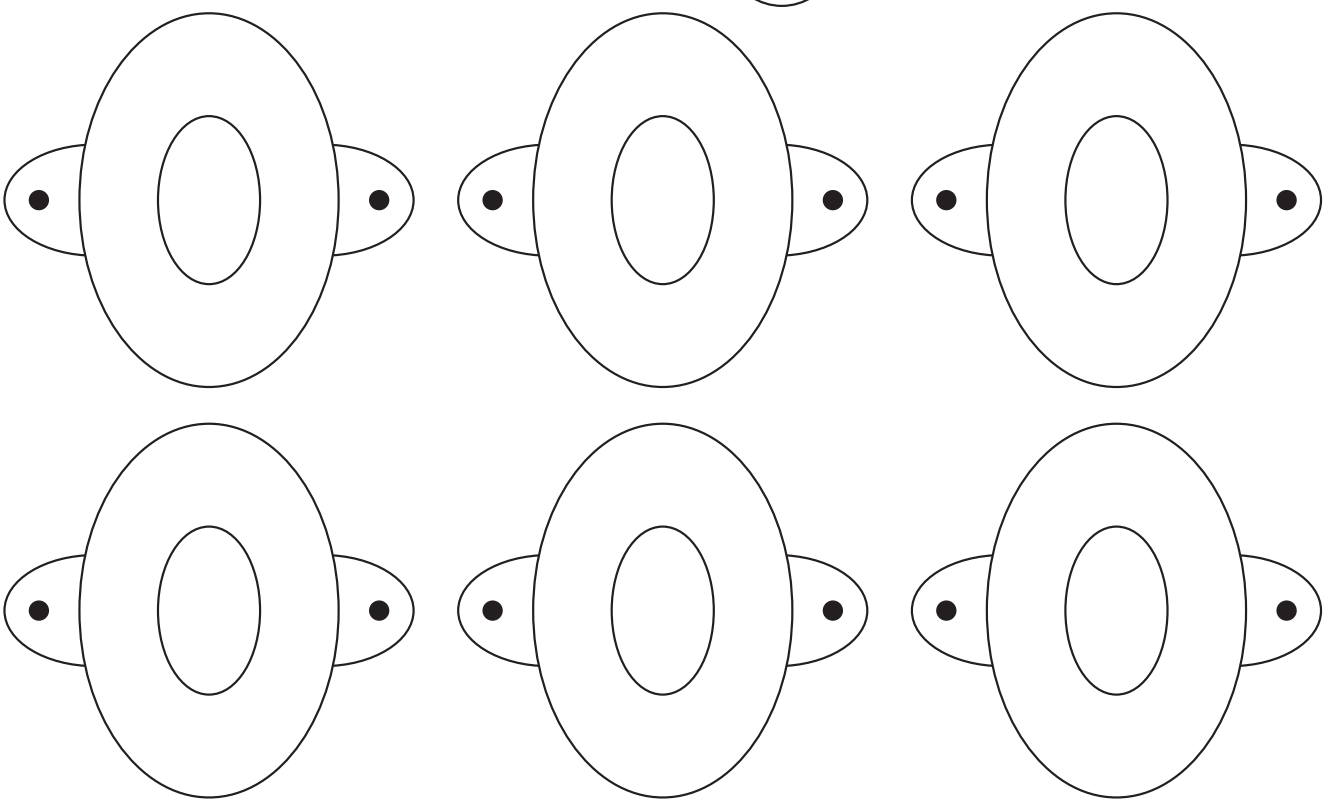
The hilliard collar was a popular type of jewellery worn by the aristocracy in Tudor times.

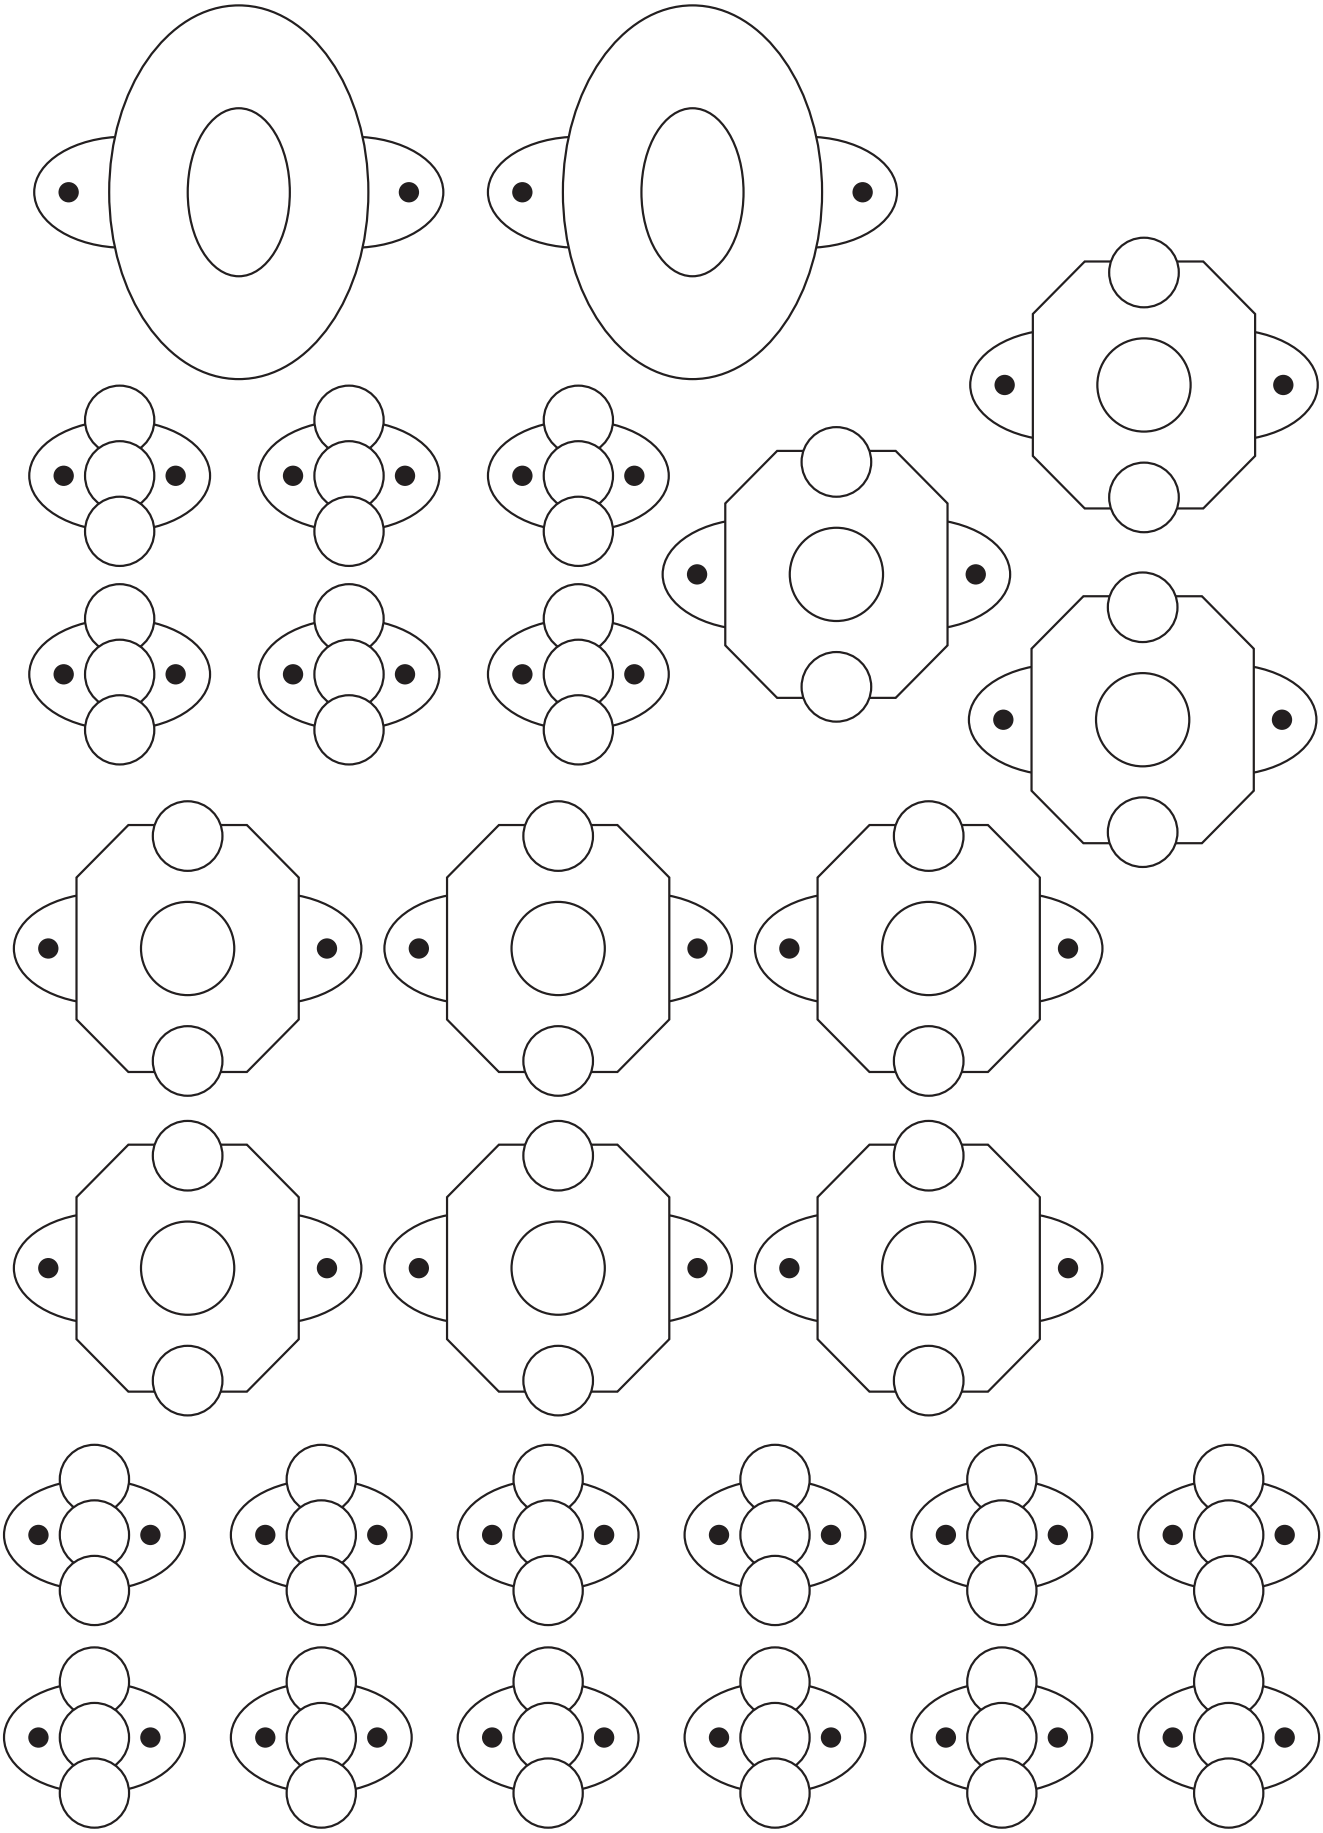


- Colour in and cut out each of the sections of the hilliard collar.
- Then use split pins to link each of the sections together where there is a black dot.
- Use as many of the smaller sections as you wish to make the collar the right length for you.
- Finally, join the ends together with a split pin.









© 2007 Curriculum Visions