

Tudors Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Merchants	A curved blade on a handle used for cutting crops
Pillory	People who trade in goods
Scythe	A stiffly starched frilled or pleated circular collar of lace or muslin worn in Elizabethan times
Will	A wooden frame used to hold down the hands and neck of wrongdoers while they are having mess thrown at them
Spice	Making leather from raw hides skinned from animals
Ruff	A strongly smelling plant such as cinnamon or nutmeg
Plague	A legal document stating a person's wishes when they die
Tanning	A serious and often fatal infection accidentally passed to humans by flea bites

Tudors Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Merchants	A curved blade on a handle used for cutting crops
Pillory	People who trade in goods
Scythe	A stiffly starched frilled or pleated circular collar of lace or muslin worn in Elizabethan times
Will	A wooden frame used to hold down the hands and neck of wrongdoers while they are having mess thrown at them
Spice	Making leather from raw hides skinned from animals
Ruff	A strongly smelling plant such as cinnamon or nutmeg
Plague	A legal document stating a person's wishes when they die
Tanning	A serious and often fatal infection accidentally passed to humans by flea bites