

Victorians Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Bustle	A cottage rented to a worker by his employer as part of his terms of work.
Privy	Part of a dress, which makes the dress stick out from the lower back.
Viaduct	A narrow alley behind a terrace of large houses where carriages were kept and horses stabled.
Copybook	A bridge of many arches used to carry a railway over a road or river.
Tied cottage	A period, beginning in the 18 th century and finishing in Victorian times, when machines began to take over.
Corset	An outside toilet.
Mews	A stiff, tight piece of underwear worn by Victorian women around the upper part of their body.
Industrial Revolution	A school exercise book used for practising handwriting.

Victorians Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Bustle	A cottage rented to a worker by his employer as part of his terms of work.
Privy	Part of a dress, which makes the dress stick out from the lower back.
Viaduct	A narrow alley behind a terrace of large houses where carriages were kept and horses stabled.
Copybook	A bridge of many arches used to carry a railway over a road or river.
Tied cottage	A period, beginning in the 18 th century and finishing in Victorian times, when machines began to take over.
Corset	An outside toilet.
Mews	A stiff, tight piece of underwear worn by Victorian women around the upper part of their body.
Industrial Revolution	A school exercise book used for practising handwriting.