

Stretchy and springy

Some materials will get bigger when you pull them.

Bubble gum is stretchy but not springy.

Stretchy materials get bigger when you pull them, and stay that way.

Many materials get bigger when we pull them, but then go back into shape when we let them go.

These are springy materials.

Trampolines are springy.

trampoline

These are springy bands. They are made of rubber.

These coils of steel are called springs.

This safety pin is made of a springy metal.

A luggage holder is made of springy rubber.

Can you name some things that are stretchy?