

Name: ..... Form: .....

See pages 18 and 19 of Food, teeth and eating

Teeth

Teeth are vital for breaking up food into the small pieces that the body can use. Each kind of tooth has a special place, and a special shape for the job it has to do.

Q1. Look at the teeth in the upper jaw in the diagram.

- (i) Label each incisor tooth with an I.
- (ii) Label each canine tooth with a C.
- (iii) Label each molar tooth with an M.

Q2. What is the first set of teeth called?

.....

Q3. Which teeth cut into food?

.....

Q4. Which teeth grind up food?

.....

Q5. (i) What is the hardest material in the body? .....

(ii) Where is this material found?

.....

Q6. (i) What is the sticky coating found on teeth? .....

How does the coating rot the teeth?

.....

.....