

Name: Form:

See pages 18 and 19 of Habitats

Food chains

Many of the plants and animals that live together in a community depend on each other as a source of food, or to help them breed.

Q1. The diagram above shows the living things in a food chain in a pond.

(i) Name the living things labelled A to D in the diagram.

A B

C D

(ii) Draw in arrows to show how food passes along the food chain.

Q2. What things in a community produce the most living material?

.....

Q3. Give two reasons why plants need animals.

1

2

Q4. Name two kinds of animals eaten by animal hunters.

1

2

Q5. What kind of food does a carnivore eat?

Q6. What is the difference between predators and prey?

.....

.....