

Changing Materials Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Acid

To give off heat through a flame.

Material

To add water to a liquid.

Burn

A liquid with a sour taste that combines with many other substances.

Dilute

The reddish surface coating that develops on iron and steel in damp air.

Reaction

A black substance found in all living or once-living things.

Rust

A useful substance.

Electroplating

Using electricity to put a thin metal coating on a material.

Carbon

The combining of two chemicals to create new substances.

Changing Materials Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Acid	To give off heat through a flame.
Material	To add water to a liquid.
Burn	A liquid with a sour taste that combines with many other substances.
Dilute	The reddish surface coating that develops on iron and steel in damp air.
Reaction	A black substance found in all living or once-living things.
Rust	A useful substance.
Electroplating	Using electricity to put a thin metal coating on a material.
Carbon	The combining of two chemicals to create new substances.