

Forces in Action Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| Submerge | The place of an object at which it can be balanced. |
| Lever | To rest on the surface of a liquid or in a gas. |
| Float | An instrument designed to measure a force. |
| Centre of gravity | To sink under the water. |
| Orbit | A force produced by gravity acting on an object. |
| Forcemeter | The path followed by a planet as it moves around the Sun. |
| Pivot | A device for moving a heavy load using a small force. |
| Weight | The balancing point of a beam or any kind of lever. |

Forces in Action Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| Submerge | The place of an object at which it can be balanced. |
| Lever | To rest on the surface of a liquid or in a gas. |
| Float | An instrument designed to measure a force. |
| Centre of gravity | To sink under the water. |
| Orbit | A force produced by gravity acting on an object. |
| Forcemeter | The path followed by a planet as it moves around the Sun. |
| Pivot | A device for moving a heavy load using a small force. |
| Weight | The balancing point of a beam or any kind of lever. |