

How We See Things Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Laser	Light that is so bright it makes you squint.
Reflect	A broad band or shaft of light such as that produced by a torch.
Silhouette	To bounce from a surface.
Beam	A curved piece of transparent material, such as glass, that causes light rays to bend.
Spectrum	A machine able to produce a very concentrated beam of light.
Lens	A single line or narrow band of light.
Glare	The name given to all of the colours of visible light.
Ray	The black outline of an object when seen from its shadows.

How We See Things Word Match

Curriculum Visions

Match the word to the definition by drawing a line from one to the other.

Laser	Light that is so bright it makes you squint.
Reflect	A broad band or shaft of light such as that produced by a torch.
Silhouette	To bounce from a surface.
Beam	A curved piece of transparent material, such as glass, that causes light rays to bend.
Spectrum	A machine able to produce a very concentrated beam of light.
Lens	A single line or narrow band of light.
Glare	The name given to all of the colours of visible light.
Ray	The black outline of an object when seen from its shadows.